WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW?

- On this program, you will be moving actively through both urban and natural settings, engaging directly with matters of political and social concern, developing both awareness of cultural issues important to modern-day Australians and the skills needed to navigate those issues.
- Attend performances as part of the Sydney Arts Festival, one of the world's greatest arts events: theater, music, dance, visual arts.
- Visit Featherdale Wildlife Reserve, where you'll interact directly with kangaroos, wallabies, and koala bears
- Hike through the wilderness surrounding both Sydney and Cairns, learning about Indigenous history from local experts.
- This course is approved to satisfy the Cultural Competence requirement through General Education.
- Course credit will be given for one of the following three (3) credit UMD course: ENGL369D or HONORS 349B.
