Supporting materials required in addition to this application:

1. Please ask one of your English professors to send a letter of recommendation to Professor Jason Rudy. (Note: Your recommender MUST be a roster professor in the English Department at UMD - not an instructor, graduate student, etc.). Please note that if you are proposing a creative writing project in poetry or fiction, you must also be approved by the Creative Writing faculty prior to submitting this application. You may seek approval through their application, which is due by Tuesday, October 15, 2019. Visit ter.ps/ApplyEHonors for the application and more information.
2. Please provide with your application a sample of your writing (for example, a paper written for an English course), and an unofficial transcript.
3. Attach a 1-2 page essay on why you would like to join the Honors Program; why do you want to work on an Honors thesis; what are your goals and expectations?

Submit Application and Supporting Materials as Attachments to:
Professor Jason Rudy, jrrudy@umd.edu, Director of English Honors
Please put "Honors Application" in the email subject line.
